Giving back and changing lives

“The thing is, I might give a fair bit, but I get just as much back,” long-time Anglicare Victoria volunteer Martyn said with a smile.

Martyn, who recently turned 80, has been volunteering with the Get Out for Good post-prison release program for over a decade, and was one of the inaugural volunteers at St Mark’s Community drop-in Centre for houseless people – over 22 years ago.

“As you can imagine, after that long, I’ve got a few friends up there amongst the clientele. So there’s a lot of fun in it for me too,” he said.

The Mission to Seafarers Victoria serves a special place in the life and community of those who live and work at sea, the dedicated team of staff and volunteers provide comfort, a friendly face, and a sense of community to the thousands of seafarers who visit the Port of Melbourne annually.

Amid these challenges, MtSV has been a constant source of practical support and reassurance, playing a vital role alongside our colleagues in 200 ports worldwide, collectively supporting the 1.5 million unseen keyworkers who have helped to keep the economy afloat and transport the essentials we need to survive.

Our PRAYER for growth

God of mission,

*Who alone brings growth to your Church,
Send your Holy Spirit to give vision to our planning, wisdom to our actions, joy to our worship and power to our witness.*

*Help our Church to grow in numbers, In spiritual commitment to you, and in service
to our local community,*

Through Jesus Christ our Lord,

Amen

2024 has been a remarkable year for Anglican Overseas Aid, as we continued to partner with communities worldwide to create meaningful change.

Guided by a strengths-based approach, we worked alongside local organisations and community members to help them build resilience, reduce poverty, and respond to pressing challenges like climate change, natural disasters and inequality.

Our work spanned health, education, sustainable livelihoods, and emergency response, and our impact this year reflects the dedication and generosity of our supporters. Together, we’ve achieved incredible milestones.
